

I am writing you to day to keep my national Radio staion alive and well. when trsveling the nation I can insure the content of what I hear by staying with the KLove family of stations. With the roll out of LPFM stationsin the base few years I am becoming concerned about the localism campaign. I want to have my freedom to choose a national station. Thanks you. Daniel Barr